CEO Outlines Company's Plans Moving Forward

LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--OBN Holdings (Pink Sheets: OBNI) today announced that Roger Neal Smith, OBN President and CEO, was interviewed by the internet financial site "Wall Street Reporter." In the interview, Mr. Smith discussed the company's significant growth since 2007 after changing OBN's business model from that of solely entertainment into one of acquiring and developing profitable businesses worldwide. He also noted that, with a book value of 35 cents and with its common stock closing at 17 cents on October 7th, OBN stock is woefully undervalued. Moreover, Mr. Smith discussed his plans to move OBN back to the OTC Bulletin Board within the next 30 to 45 days and his plans to file for admission to the NYSE Amex Equities Exchange (formerly the American Stock Exchange) by the end of the year.
